Fremont and Dayton Club.

A large meeting of the Fremont and Dayton Club, of Jersey City, was held at the headquarters of the Club, last evening, at which DUDLEY S. GREGORY, President of the Club, presided. The Club were addressed by Col. SPEED, of Michigan, and considerable business was transacted.

Attempt to Commit Suicide.

A man who gave his name as JOHN GORHAM, and said that he had lately lived with his brother DENIS GORHAM, at No. 8 Atkinson-street, Boston, undertook to drown himself yesterday in Mill Creek, back of Jersey City. He divested himself of his clothing, tied his hands behind his back, and laid down in the edge of the water to await the rising of the tide. Officer TREADWELL found him, took him to New-York, and placed him in the hands of the authorities. The only reason that he gave for the act was, that he was tired of living. While crossing the Ferry he endeavored to jump overboard.

Railroad Accident.

As the mail train from Philadelphia was near the Hackensack River, last evening, at a little after 9 o'clock, the pilot upon the locomotive struck a man whose name is unknown, threw him off the track and instantly killed him. He was walking upon the track. The whistle was blown, and the breaks applied, but without avail. He is a man of small stature, apparently 35 years of age, had auburn hair, a sandy goatee, wore a black coat, white shirt, black silk cravat, blue satin vest, drab pants and black gaiters. He was apparently a boatman. The initials "J.M." were marked upon one of his hands in India Ink.

Drowned.

A little girl, four years of age, daughter of JOHN MURPHY, who resides near Weehawken Hill, Hoboken, was drowned on Sunday by falling into a tub of water. When found, life was extinct.
